TNI slowly gets back to it's normal operations

As the end of summer is nearing, the last of all summer vacations are being taken, and others are getting back into the 'normal' routine. Things will be getting back to normal as people will be traveling more often, Nunavimuit's new season will soon begin, and the newsletter will be back on its weekly routine.

Since everyone has been 'out of touch'
for a better part of the summer, if you have an announcement or something new to announce, please let me know, and I'll make sure that the worked is spread out to everyone at TNI.

I hope you all are having a wonderful summer and lots of sunshine!

Julie Grenier

Birthday Wishes

I am sorry to say that over the course of the summer (and during my vacation) one of TNI's employees didn't get a proper TNI birthday wish. So even though this comes a month too late, I would like to wish Joanassie Koperqualuk, who celebrated his birthday on July 5th, a happy belated birthday on behalf of everyone at TNI.

Also worth mentioning here, are two TNI employees who, in July, celebrated their anniversary with TNI. On July 13th, Claude Grenier celebrated his 7th year with TNI. And on July 31st, Eva Sakiagak Audlaluk celebrated her 5th year with TNI. Congratulations to both of you!

tion and is being replaced by Jeannie Naluiyuk until her return.

Also in Salluit, Paulusie Nauya is on sick-leave and is being replaced by Uiviro until he is ready to return.

In Kuujjuaq, Evie will be on sick leave all week this week. She should be back in the office as of Monday, August 15th.

Traveling

Bobby Kenuajuaq will be traveling to Kuujjuaq on August 10th, and then up to Quaqtaq with Dave Stonier on the 11th. In Quaqtaq, they will be filming a meeting of people who were there to work 50 years ago. They will return to Kuujjuaq on the 14th, to film the Arpik Jam.

Akenisie will be attending the Avataq language terminology workshop in Inukjuaq from August 11th to the 18th. She will be traveling to Inukjuaq on August 10th, and returning to Montreal on the 19th. She should be back in the office on August 22nd.

Claude Grenier will be traveling to Kuujjuaq on August 12th. While in Kuujjuaq he will be meeting with different people from different Nunavik organizations. He will be returning to Montreal on August 22nd, and back in the office on the 23rd.
