Salluit gets visitor

Elisapee Isaac was at the Salluit office last Thursday accompanied by CBC television. They all spent a big portion of the day at the office, filming her and digging through old files which at one time or another, included Elisapee.

This week in Salluit

Salluit are still having computer difficulties, so they will not have access to the internet until the problem is fixed. Someone will be going up to Salluit to fix the computer in the coming weeks. But meanwhile, thanks to Timiaq's suggestion, we are looking at the possibility of having environment Canada send Salluit the weather report 3 times daily, by fax. An answer should be given to us in the coming days. This was a very good idea, so thanks Timiaq!

Back in Dorval

Claude and Julie are back in Dorval this week after having been stormed in. Both of them were attending a KRETC meeting in Kuujuaq, where they were taking part in the prioritization of the purchase of training of all the organizations for the 2004-2005 year.
