

TNI Newsletter

Featuring this week on Nunavimiut: Sexual Assault

Tune in on to APTN on Tuesday for Nunavimiut program on Sexual Assault.

For a victim of sexual assault, the road that lay ahead is not an easy one to walk. The multitude of decisions that must be made can weigh heavy on anyone's mind. Where to start, who to see, what to say, the list is endless and at times the right answers may seem out of your grasp. This production will give you an insight on how to begin the process of healing after such an ordeal. It will tell you of the resources that are available for you and where and whom you may turn to during his time in your life. Help is out there for these victims and at times it is only a short step away.

The show will be broadcast four times during the day on February 17th 2004. You could watch it at 11:00am, at 2:00pm, at 6:00pm, or at 11:00pm eastern time.

So tune in for an episode that will give you some very important information which could be used by either yourself or by a loved one.

TNI Survey

The results are in! but they aren't final. Therefore, they still need to be looked at and worked on. Some of the results are presented in ways that make it too difficult to understand, so once we have finished working on them, we will prepare a summary, which will be available to the radio

Traveling this week

Julie Grenier will be traveling to Quaqtaq this week to attend the Regional Councilors meeting. The meeting will be taking place from February 17th to February 19th. Julie will travel to Quaqtaq on February 16th, and will return on February 20th. She will be back in the office on February 23rd.

Dominique Guay is now travelling to most of the communities on the Hudson coast. His route will include Kuujjuaraapik, Umiujaq, Inukjuaq, Puvirnituaq, Akulivik and finally, Salluit. He will be visiting all the local FM stations, as well as the TNI office in Salluit.

In Salluit

Benoit Borrel didn't make it to Salluit on Thursday like he was supposed to because he missed his flight!!! But he should be at the office this week to work on the computer.

And also, Eva Sakiagak Audlaluk will be taking a few days off from work.

Elsewhere @ TNI

There isn't much more going on anywhere else at TNI. Jeannie Nayoumealuk has now finished with her training with Dana. She will practice with the system and get comfortable with it. Once she has had time to practice, Dana will be returning to Kuujuaq to give her a second, more in depth, training session.

and television personel. Hopefully, we will all be able to go over the final results together, and see where TNI is doing good, and where there needs to be improvement, and then come up with solutions on how we can improve.

For more information:

Please contact:
Julie Grenier
Information and public relations agent
Taqramiut Nipingat Inc.
1985-55th avenue, Suite 200
Dorval, Quebec H9P 1G9
tel: (514) 631-1394
fax: (514) 631-6258
jgrenier@taqramiut.qc.ca

