

TNI Newsletter

Featuring this week on Nunavimut: Salluit Music Festival

Tune in on to APTN on Tuesday for Nunavimut program on Salluit Music Festival.

Musical performers delight the hand-clapping, toe tapping audience once again during the 2002 Salluit Music Festival. So put on your jiggin' shoes and join in the festivities. Enjoy performances from the likes of Jobie Arnaituq, Evie Mark, Sarah Beaulne and some local celebrities such as Elisapie Isaac and Charlie Tarkirk. A few of the performers let us in their trade secrets of how they became the musical hits they are today. A special bonus to the festival was having Susie Banquet visiting from France. A native of Kangirsujuq, left with her father at the age of 8 and has come back 70 years later to rediscover some of the life and family she had left behind. An enjoyment for the whole family.

The show will be broadcast four times during the day on February 24th 2004. You could watch it at 11:00am, at 2:00pm, at 6:00pm, or at 11:00pm eastern time.

So tune in for an episode of fun, dance and rediscovery!

Hapening @ TNI this week!

Julie Grenier and Eva Sakiagak Audlaluk will be attending the launch of Elisapie Isaac's new CD called Taima on Monday evening. Eva will be back at the office in Salluit on Thursday, February 26th.

Julie will also be attending the AGM of Culture Montreal all day on Wednesday, february 25th in Montreal.

A little bit of news from the accounting department, the T4 and Releve 1 forms, for all the TNI employees, were completed and sent. So you should all expect to receive them soon!

Traveling this week

Julie Grenier, Sandy Tooma, Bobby Kenuajuak and Simionie Kanajuk are traveling to Fort Mc Murray to cover the Arctic Winter Games this week.

Sandy will be leaving from Kuujuaq on Feb.26th.

Bobby and Simionie will be leaving from Puvirnituq on February 26th also. All 4 of them will be leaving from Montreal on February 27th.

They will be returning to Montreal on March 7th. Sandy, Bobby and Simionie will return to their respective communities on the 9th!

Dominique Guay and Benoit Borrel, who were in Salluit will be leaving this week. Dominique is going to Akulivik today to work at the local FM station. He will be returning to Montreal on Tuesday, February 24th.

